The Area

Located in the northwest corner of Arizona, Mohave County offers enormous stretches of desert and mountains, a plethora of sight-seeing pleasures, and an inland Riviera - a thousand miles of Colorado River shoreline.

Of the three major cities within its borders, Kingman is the county seat and hub for rail and highway transportation; houses a large number of historic buildings and is the gateway to the majestic Hualapai Mountains.

Bullhead City is a bustling shoreline community along the Colorado River and offers water activities, picnic facilities, and is the bridge between Arizona and the bright lights of casino activity and entertainment in Laughlin, Nevada.

Lake Havasu City is a beautiful planned community, a water lover's paradise and home of the famed London Bridge. In addition, Mohave County offers the recreational activities of the Grand Canyon, Lake Mead, Hoover, Davis and Parker Dams, and the Virgin River Gorge.
